Distressed Properties Make Up 24% of All Kaua'i Sales

In the October 15th edition of The Garden Island newspaper, journalist Vanessa Van Voorhis reported that between Jan. 2009 and October 2010, there were 1,036 real estate sales on Kauai. This figure included homes, land, condos & commercial properties.

Of those, 162 were REO (real estate owned, by the bank) properties and 90 were short sales. "Distressed sales represented 24 percent of the market during the last 20 months," wrote Van Voorhis.

Kalalau Trail Closed Until November

According to The Garden Island newspaper, nine miles of the Kalalau trail (from Hanakapi'ai to Kalalau) is presently closed as part of an eight-week, multi-part maintenance project. The project addresses a mix of public safety, and natural and cultural resource management issues at Na Pali Coast State Wilderness Park on Kaua'i's North Shore.

The park is scheduled to reopen Nov. 1. For more information go to www.hawaiistateparks.org or contact the Division of State Parks.
